Introduction
Welcome to Principles of Financial Accounting, AC101. This unit will introduce you to basic concepts of accounting and their application in decision making. Visionary, innovative business ideas can fail if the mechanics of the accounting process are not properly understood by the business or social enterprise founder. Principles of Financial Accounting will benefit all students who pursue a degree in business and particularly those who intend to go into business for themselves.

After completing the unit, you should understand the basic accounting process and the accounting terminology/language and be able to apply these in decision making. You will be able to record, analyse and interpret the accounting transactions for your own small business or social enterprise, and understand how these apply to businesses on a larger scale.

Topics covered include: introduction to accounting; explaining and applying the accounting cycle; application to retail businesses; using accounting information systems; internal control; accounting for current and non-current assets and liabilities; the cash flow statement; and tools for analysing financial statements.

Bachelor of Business Learning Outcomes
The Sheridan College Bachelor of Business has been accredited by the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA) as meeting the standards set by the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF).

Bachelor Degrees qualify individuals who apply a broad and coherent body of knowledge in a range of contexts to undertake professional work, and provide a pathway for further learning.

Upon successful completion of the Bachelor of Business you (the student) will be able to:

- Demonstrate your understanding of a broad and coherent body of knowledge, with an emphasis on the underlying principles and concepts of one or more disciplines within the field of business.
- Exercise your cognitive skills successfully to critically analyse, synthesise and consolidate information, concepts and theories from multi-disciplinary perspectives.
- Critically evaluate the scholarship and professional practice of one or more disciplines within the field of business in the light of contemporary research, of workplace practice, and of perspectives grounded in Christian scholarship.
- Communicate your understanding of current knowledge and professional practice of one or more disciplines to others through structured assignments, projects and presentations in a variety of learning contexts.
- Demonstrate your intellectual independence through creative intellectual contributions to the study and/or practice of one or more disciplines within the field of business.
- Apply research-based knowledge, skills and concepts from one or more disciplines within the field of business to analyse problems and propose creative solutions across a diverse range of scenarios.
- Demonstrate your capacity to seek knowledge and truth with persistence, independence, rigour, and integrity.
- Evaluate the relevance of Christian faith and practice to the pursuit of knowledge in the field of business.
- Model self-discipline, ethical decision-making, servant leadership and respect for the dignity of individuals and groups in various settings.
Each unit you take in the Bachelor of Business program will contribute towards the fulfilment of these broader learning outcomes.

Principles of Financial Accounting Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

A. Describe the elements of Accounting (ie debits, credits, assets, liabilities, equity, revenue and expenses), and their application to routine commercial transactions.

B. Apply the Accounting Cycle to prepare accounting records and uncomplicated financial statements, particularly in relation to the service and retail industries.

C. Explain the importance of implementing internal controls in businesses.

D. Demonstrate the various methods of calculating depreciation.

E. Evaluate information contained in prepared financial statements (using techniques including ratio analysis).

Graduate Attributes

Study does more than equip you with knowledge in a specific academic field. It can also have a transformational effect on your own nature.

Moreland and Craig write:

“Study itself is a spiritual discipline, and the very act of study can change the self. One who undergoes the discipline of study lives through certain types of experiences where certain skills are developed through habitual study: framing an issue, solving problems, learning how to weigh evidence and eliminate irrelevant factors, cultivating the ability to see important distinctions instead of blurring them, and so on. The disciplines of study also aids in the development of certain virtues and values; for example, a desire for the truth, honesty with data, an openness to criticism, self-reflection and an ability to get along nondefensively with those who differ with one.”

The higher education sector in Australia describes these kinds of outcomes as “Graduate Attributes” (GAs). GAs don’t necessarily follow in a direct line from learning outcomes (LOs) but are shaped by the learning process itself. Sheridan College’s GAs, displayed in the table on the next page, are integrated into the College’s assessments and cultivated in all the College’s learning activities. They describe the kind of personal characteristics we hope you will exhibit when you graduate. If in future your referees use these kinds of descriptors when writing about you, we will consider this a sign of a successful higher education.

Course Structure

Academic Calendar
Bachelor Degrees are 3-year programs at Sheridan College. Units are delivered in 15-week trimesters. Each trimester comprises 12 weeks of teaching, two non-teaching study weeks, and an examination week.

Trimesters 1 and 3 are dedicated coursework trimesters. If you are enrolled full-time, you will take 3-4 core or elective units during this trimester.

Trimester 2 is a dedicated research trimester. Whether you are enrolled full-time or part-time, your only formal study during Trimester 2 will be a single research-related unit relevant to your field of study. The schedule provides a focused opportunity to acquire valuable research skills, and to practise applying those skills under the direction of the College faculty.

The Trimester 2 schedule also offers you some freedom to pursue personal, professional and learning goals outside of your formal coursework. The College provides a range of informal extra-curricular programs during this trimester for you to gain life experience and enhance your employability. A description of these programs can be found on the College website at http://sheridan.edu.au/index.php/home/academic-calendar.

The table below provides an example of a standard academic program for the Bachelor of Business.

Seminars
You will meet with the instructors for one 3-hour session each week. Please arrive with a willingness to learn, reflect and contribute to class discussions. It is essential that you prepare thoroughly for each class by reading the assigned chapters and/or journal articles.
Private Study Expectations
You should expect to spend an additional nine (9) hours per week of private study, immersing yourself in the course material and completing the assessment requirements. Reading and preparation for each course week should be done prior to or during the early part of each course week. Students may choose to begin reading over the weekend prior to each course week, keeping a notebook of insights and questions to contribute during the week’s discussion.

Consultation
At Sheridan College, instructors make themselves available during office hours for individual consultations for a minimum of 25% of the total time spent teaching the unit. For this unit, the instructor will nominate an additional one (1) hour either before or after class to be available for individual student queries. The specific times will be set after discussions with the class on the first day.

IT Resources
The internet is an extraordinary resource for students and using it effectively contributes to the nurturing of the College’s graduate attributes in each student. We encourage you to bring your electronic devices (college-supplied or personal tablets, mobile phones, laptops) into the class as a learning resource. As a courtesy to your classmates, please keep these learning devices on “silent” and do not take phone calls during class hours.

Wireless internet access will be available for all students at the Piccadilly Square West campus, if you wish to meet there in study groups or for private study. You can also access printers, scanners and photocopiers at the office.

Explanation of Assessments

Sheridan College assessments are designed both to measure your successful demonstration of the full range of learning outcomes in the unit, and to cultivate the Sheridan College graduate attributes.

You must submit all assessments in order to satisfy the unit requirements.

1. Assignments (x3)

Students will complete three assignments during the unit. Each of the assignments will comprise of an accounting problem, which involves testing the students' ability to practice their accounting knowledge, as well as some theoretical questions.

The assignments will cover the following topics:

- Assignment #1 – Adjusting and Closing Entries
- Assignment #2 – Retailing Operations; Internal Controls
- Assignment #3 – Assets and Liabilities

Each assignment will be worth 15%, and together comprise 45% of your total mark for the unit.
2. Final Examination

The final examination for this unit will take place in week 13 and will cover all material in the unit. Duration of the examination is 3 hours. You may bring in your textbook and a calculator into the examination.

The examination will comprise three parts:

1. A series of short answer questions, covering financial accounting concepts (15 marks)
2. A set of financial accounting exercises, covering all the material you will have practiced in class and at home over the course of the unit. (40 marks)

The examination constitutes 55% of your total for the unit.
Guidelines for Written Assignments
These general guidelines will assist you in preparing and writing your assignments. Your instructor will discuss these in greater detail before you commence your assignment. If you have any questions please ask your instructor to assist you. Do not ask other students, as they may not give you the correct information.

Presentation
- The assignment must be typed on A4 paper with 1.5 or 2-line spacing and a 3cm margin at the top, bottom and right hand side to allow for marker's comments. Headings should be used to identify the main points in your discussion and may be underlined.
- Your assignment should be grammatically correct and well punctuated. A high standard of written English is expected and your assignments should be clear, concise, neatly presented and easy to read. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in a significant loss of marks.

Academic Integrity
- Your assignment must be your own original piece of work and not that of another student or previously submitted work for another subject. Please be aware that there are serious penalties for handing in assignments that have been copied from another source (plagiarism). Your lecturer will discuss this with you during your class. Please note also that Sheridan College deploys plagiarism-detection mechanisms. The Sheridan College Academic Integrity Policy is found at http://sheridan.edu.au/index.php/home/policy-library.
- You are expected to acknowledge the source of your ideas and expressions used in your written work. Students at Sheridan College are required to use the APA Referencing style. A guide to using the APA referencing style is posted on Canvas.

Submission
- Your assignment should be submitted to your instructor by the date specified. If you require an extension of time, it is your responsibility to contact your lecturer before the due date, and provide documentation from a medical practitioner, or the student counsellor as to why you cannot adhere to the stated due date.
- Any assignment submitted after the due date without the instructor’s permission will be subject to a deduction of 10% of the original mark for each working day (including weekends) for which it is late. Assignments submitted more than one week late will only be accepted with a current medical certificate, which must be dated on the day of the illness.
- You must keep a copy of the completed assignment when you submit the original document for marking.
- If you are in doubt about any of these requirements, you should discuss them with your instructor who will clarify any misunderstanding.
- All assignments must be submitted to assignments@sheridan.edu.au.

Assessment Moderation
- Your major assessment may also be marked by an external examiner, in addition to your instructor. This is common practice in higher education and is designed to ensure that your marks are equivalent to students being assessed at other higher education institutions.
